

Your perfect day

Are you looking for the perfect location for your perfect day? A reception with sparkling wine, romantic photos in the Bremen public park and a celebration in a stylish atmosphere – our large function room with festively decorated floor-to-ceiling windows and high ceilings provides the perfect setting.

The open foyer with a view of the Universum® Bremen is the ideal place for your reception with sparkling wine, which is served on the terrace in fine weather.

The CAMPUS restaurant, famous for its outstanding kitchen, will delight you and your guests with a diverse range of dishes and top-quality service. The friendly and expert service provided by our staff ensures that you as the host can relax and enjoy the day. The bride and groom also get to spend their wedding night in one of our studios including a surprise courtesy from the hotel.

We will help you plan your perfect day with a special wedding menu tailored specifically to your wishes together with the matching drinks and also answer all your questions about table decorations, menu cards, music and photographs. Our Event Sales Team is always happy to help and looks forward to discussing your options with you personally.
