ATLANTIC
HOTEL Frankfurt

PRESS RELEASE

ATLANTIC Hotel Frankfurt officially opens its doors

- New flagship hotel with 373 rooms and suites, direct access to Messe Frankfurt
- 20 HIGH Skyline Bar, 4FRANK Restaurant, All-Day-Café DELI, Smokers Lounge
- Meeting rooms for up to 336 participants, fitness and spa areas

Bremen/Frankfurt, September 2nd, 2026. With the opening of the ATLANTIC Hotel Frankfurt, the ATLANTIC Hotel group is opening its 21st property in the Sparda-Bank Tower; with 373 rooms and suites, it offers the highest room capacity within the hotel group. The 4-star superior hotel forms part of the building complex housing the Europa-Allee trade fair entrance. This means that future trade fair hotel guests will be able to access the entire Messe Frankfurt directly, regardless of the weather, via an air-conditioned and enclosed Via Mobile walkway.

373 rooms and suites across six categories

A particular emphasis has been placed on the quality, tranquility and design of the furnishings of the room. Furthermore, all rooms can be completely darkened to offer guests the best possible sleeping comfort. The rooms are characterized by subtle color schemes and contemporary furnishings. Guests can choose from six categories: ranging from the 19 m² Comfort Single Room, through the Comfort Double Room, Superior Double Room and Skyline Double Room – all measuring 24 m² - to the 35 m² Junior Suite and suites measuring 45 m².

Meet, celebrate, enjoy

The ATLANTIC Hotel Frankfurt offers five meeting rooms and two conference halls that can be combined to accommodate meetings, conferences and events. These versatile event spaces are ideal for exclusive boardroom meetings, corporate anniversaries or elegant private celebrations and are equipped with state-of-the-art event technology. All event venues feature the latest conference technology, including integrated LED walls as well as high-performance presentation and video conferencing systems. The third floor also features an exclusive smokers' lounge, where guests can unwind in a relaxed setting and enjoy a carefully curated collection of high-quality cigars and tobacco products.

ATLANTIC
HOTEL Frankfurt

20 High Skyline Bar with Mo Kaba

The new 20 High Skyline Bar offers seating for up to 100 guests and welcomes both hotel residents and external visitors. Its internationally inspired bar concept is complemented by panoramic views of the Frankfurt skyline, making it an ideal venue for corporate functions and private events where privacy and bespoke experiences are prioritized. Mo Kaba, who brings international experience and a clear vision of modern bar culture, will be taking charge of the bar. As bar manager, he is responsible for the conceptual and operational direction of the bar's offering. Mo Kaba has received numerous awards. Most recently, he took second place at the International Creative Media Award with the 'Fine Spirits' bar card.

Culinary highlights

The dining concept is aimed at both hotel guests and visitors from Frankfurt and the surrounding region: from breakfast through to lunch and dinner, the 4Frank Restaurant combines classic dishes, international cuisine and regional products. At the all-day café DELI, guests can also enjoy freshly prepared sushi, exquisite coffee specialties, homemade lemonades and a diverse selection of fresh creations. The head chef is Patrick Beainy, who previously worked in renowned Frankfurt hotels and has gained extensive experience in managing kitchen teams, planning culinary processes and developing high-quality catering concepts.

Fitness and Spa

The fitness area features state-of-the-art training equipment, dedicated spaces for functional training and bodyweight exercises. Guests can follow their individual fitness routines and then unwind in the wellness area, which includes a Finnish sauna and a relaxation room.

The interior was designed by Olufemi Mooser Architects and furnished by Brumann Interior Concepts. 'We would like to warmly congratulate ATLANTIC Hotels on the opening of this attractive hotel in the Sparda-Bank Tower and wish them every success at the launch. We are delighted that our tenant, with its outstanding range of offerings and in combination with the Europa-Allee trade fair entrance, has the ideal conditions for a successful hotel operation, providing guests with a high-quality stay. We would also like to express our sincere thanks to the Gustav Zech Stiftung for realizing this impressive building complex', explains Michael Weidmann, Chairman of the Board of Sparda-Bank Hessen eG.

ATLANTIC
HOTEL Frankfurt

‘We too would like to congratulate ATLANTIC Hotels on the opening of their new property in Frankfurt and wish them every success in its operation. We are delighted that customers and visitors to Messe Frankfurt now have another excellent accommodation option and can access the entire exhibition grounds via our Europa-Allee trade fair entrance using the Via Mobile walkway, regardless of the weather. This marks another milestone in the development of Messe Frankfurt’, adds Wolfgang Marzin, Chief Executive Officer of Messe Frankfurt.

Manuel Slapnig, host of the ATLANTIC Hotel Frankfurt, is delighted: ‘The time has finally come, and we can now focus on what we love: welcoming our guests, providing them with the best possible accommodation and treating them to culinary delights. My thanks go to everyone who contributed to the construction and fit-out phase. Now, the guest comes first’.

‘We wish Manuel Slapnig and the entire ATLANTIC Hotel Frankfurt team every joy and success in running our newest hotel. Opening a new property of this caliber always presents challenges. We’re keeping our fingers crossed and stand ready to help overcome them’, says Markus Griesenbeck, Managing Director of the ATLANTIC Hotels group.

About the ATLANTIC Hotels group

Stylish design, refined cuisine and personalized full service are the hallmarks of the ATLANTIC Hotels group. The hotel group currently operates 21 properties under the brands ATLANTIC Hotels, unique by ATLANTIC Hotels and Severin*s, as well as the LOUIS Hotel in Munich, with over 3,000 rooms and modern, light-filled conference and event spaces for up to 1,200 guests. Here you will find the 21 hotels of the ATLANTIC Hotels group: Bremen, Bremerhaven, Kiel, Lübeck, Wilhelmshaven, Münster, Essen, Heidelberg, Donaueschingen, München, on the island of Sylt and in Lech am Arlberg. With the Severin*s Resort & Spa Tegernsee currently under construction and a new ATLANTIC Hotel in Erfurt, the group is continuing to strategically expand its hotel portfolio to attractive locations.

All ATLANTIC Hotels, the Severin*s Resort & Spa on Sylt and the LOUIS Hotel in Munich are certified in accordance with GreenSign guidelines.

Find out more at:
atlantic-hotels.de

Contact:
ATLANTIC Hotels
Markus Griesenbeck
Geschäftsführer
0421 / 944888-0

info@atlantic-hotels.de

Press enquiries:
ATLANTIC Hotels
Holger Römer
c/o Zech Group SE
0421 / 41007-113
0151 11720982
hroemer@zech-group.com